Dunwoody Chamber in Heels [1]

A group of strong, independent business women looking to connect, network, and support each other and the Dunwoody community through business opportunities, fundraising events, and outreach programs. The Dunwoody Chamber in Heels is a subgroup of the Dunwoody Chamber of Commerce. The DCinHeels wants to lead, inspire, and help our businesses grow by networking and getting involved in the Dunwoody community.

If developing relationships in the Dunwoody community is part of your marketing strategy and you are a woman in business, an entrepreneur, or work from home, there will be no better place for you to be in the know and grow!

VISION:

- To be the preferred choice for women doing business in Dunwoody to promote their business and network with like minded women.
 - We will be a highly regarded fundraising and outreach arm to the Dunwoody Community by our contributory members and unique approach.
 - To be a program that offers leadership, team, personal and professional development by getting involved in our community and working with a common understanding that only our best will do. Dunwoody Chamber in Heels will be a positive Dunwoody Chamber group that will be seen, heard and experienced locally and beyond.

Award Winning Author and Journalist Gail Wescott Addresses Sold Out DCIH Luncheon

On Tuesday, August 20th, award winner author and former Life and People Magazine journalist Gail Wescott told amazing story after story about her life, at home with the Kennedy Family, touring with the Beatles and chatting with Hollywood elites like Julia Roberts. Mrs. Wescott was a true trailblazer for women in journalism and a wonderful speaker!
